PRESS RELEASE

National Electronic Attachment, Inc. (NEA) is ranked 1959 of the 5000 Fastest Growing Private Companies, according to Inc. Magazine

Atlanta, GA, August 28, 2008 – NEA, The Recognized Leader in Electronic Attachments, was recently ranked No. 1959 on the Inc. Magazine list of America's 5000 Fastest Growing Private Companies for 2008. The list, featured in the September issue of Inc.500 or at www.inc500.com, is compiled of 5000 companies with reported aggregate revenue of $185 billion for 2007.

For over 10 years NEA's focus has been to provide Internet based solutions to address healthcare claim filing and claim adjudication problems faced by healthcare providers and payors. NEA developed a system application called FastAttach™, which enables healthcare offices to transmit healthcare attachments to NEA's repository, where they are stored securely for quicker, more efficient review by Payors.

"NEA is honored to be a part of this dynamic and innovative group of entrepreneurs. Being featured on the Inc. 5000 is a tremendous accomplishment for our group, and demonstrates our commitment to delivering innovative solutions to our clients," said Tom Hughes, CEO. "We are privileged to leverage our collective brainpower in the area of attachments to help our clients improve processes, increase EDI transactions and reduce administrative costs."
