National Electronic Attachment, Inc. Adds Several New Payors to Begin Receiving Electronic Dental Attachments via FastAttach™

ATLANTA – Aug. 19, 2009– National Electronic Attachment, Inc. (NEA) announced today that the following new Payors would begin to accept electronically transmitted attachments from dental providers via FastAttach™. These Payors have joined NEA’s growing list of Dental Electronic attachment Payors. This will allow dentists to send electronic attachments to NEA’s web site for the following:

Alan Sturm & Associates
Delta Dental of Minnesota
CSEA Employee Benefit Fund
Flex Compensation
Medica Commercial Program
Medicaid GA - Peachstate Health Plan
Medica MN Public Program
Medicaid - MN Blue Plus

Medicaid - MN CivicSmiles
Medicaid - MN First Plan Blue
Medicaid - MN Met Health Plan
MN Power
WI Auto & Truck Dealers
Wilson-McShane

“These Payors join a group of forward thinking Payors who realize that there is a savings to be made in receiving attachments electronically. By accepting attachments electronically more of the claims will be received electronically. NEA has integrated with all of the major practice management systems in the country to provide the seamless ability for providers to send attachments electronically. The function of sending x-rays, narratives, perio-charts, EOBs is simply a matter of a few clicks of the mouse. We’re pleased to work with these outstanding Payors on electronic attachments, and we look forward to the opportunity to register their providers,” said Thomas Hughes, CEO of NEA.
